GWAVA Security Summit In NYC Times Square To Be Offered Free
Major Vendor support opens event to all Novell customers

Montreal, Quebec, Canada -May 18, 2010 –GWAVA announced today that due to recent events and generous support from the Novell GroupWise technology partner community, the New York City Security Summit at the Marriott Marquee in Times Square will now be free of charge to all Novell customers. These partners include Kaspersky Lab, a top anti-virus security company, SkyPro, a VoIP and Fax solution company, Notify Technologies, the leading mobility vendor for GroupWise, and Novell, the makers of GroupWise and SUSE Linux.

The summit offers two technical tracks focused on security and geared for GroupWise® administrators and Novell consultants.

“This opportunity will give unprecedented access to the latest information in security and compliance that organizations need to protect themselves in today’s uncertain environment.” Said Richard Bliss, Senior Vice President Global Marketing, GWAVA.
